

Expression of Interest Form: Affiliate Program

The Commission on Independent Colleges and Universities in New York (CICU) is a statewide organization devoted to advancing the interests of private higher education in New York State. With a membership of 100+ private colleges and universities across the state, CICU provides a variety of services and programs developed to meet the needs of independent higher education. Its mission is to develop consensus among a diverse membership and to advance higher education public policy. Further, CICU works to create partnerships among its member institutions to enhance their programs and reduce their costs.

The CICU Affiliate Program serves an important link between New York State’s business sector and the educational community by highlighting the role of New York’s Independent Sector as a purchaser of goods and services, with a mission of creating partnerships among its member institutions to enhance their programs and reduce their costs.

The Affiliate program is comprised of high-quality companies that demonstrate their support for private higher education by finding and providing solutions for CICU member institutions.

CICU invites interested entities to apply to join the CICU Affiliate program that meet one of the following criteria:

- Have a record of providing goods or services to at least one CICU member institution;
- Have a relationship with another state association of independent colleges and universities or The Coalition of College Cost Savings; or
- Have an interest in advancing the mission and objectives of the Affiliate program as it relates to CICU member institutions.
